

DV INTERVIEW CANCELLATION

DHAKA, SEPTEMBER 4 -- The United States Embassy in Dhaka sincerely regrets to inform that all new diversity visa (DV) interviews scheduled for the month of September 2007 are now cancelled.

Diversity visas are limited by a quota set by the United States Congress. It is not possible to issue more visas than the number which has been allocated. Regrettably, there are no more visas available for Bangladeshi citizens for DV-2007, therefore new interviews for the diversity visa are cancelled at this time.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause to those who were scheduled for new DV interviews in September 2007. Bangladeshi citizens are still eligible to apply for the diversity visa in the future, and we welcome their applications.

Please note that only diversity visa interviews have been cancelled. Immigration and non-immigration interview appointments are still being processed as normal. This change only affects those diversity visa applicants who have not yet had an interview. Please do not make any inquiries to the US Embassy if you have already had your diversity visa interview. We will contact all applicants whose cases are still pending before the end of the DV-2007 year (September 30, 2007).

We wish you good fortune for all your future endeavors.
